

ILLUSTRATED NEWS OF THE WEEK - A SPECIAL TRIBUNE FEATURE

THE BEST OF THE WEEK'S INTERESTING NEWS PICTURES

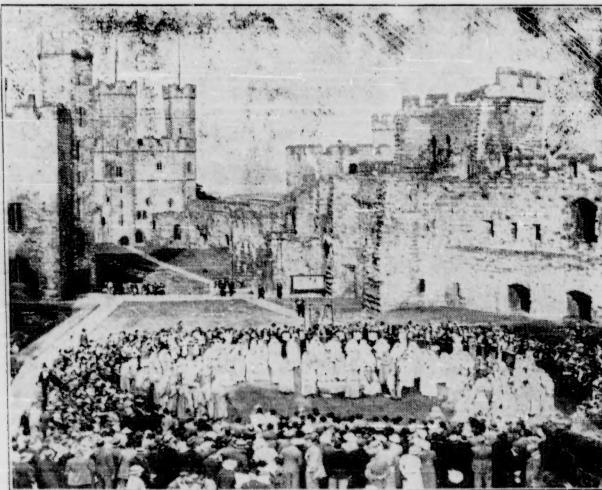

BRITAIN'S NAVY ON SHOW

The Duke of York leaving Nelson's old flagship "Victoria" aboard which he performed the opening ceremony for "Navy Week."

FIELD DAY WITH OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS AT ALDERSHOT

More than 5,000 public school boys of the officers' training Corps attended camp at Aldershot in the last few weeks. This picture shows some of the cadets on the march through lovely English scenery.

PICTURESQUE CEREMONY AT CAERNARVON CASTLE

The walls of Caernarvon Castle, Wales, overlooking the Menai straits, provided a picturesque setting for the pageantry of the National Eisteddfod. This picture shows the meeting of the Bardic Gorsedd. In the centre is the Archdruid, who is standing on the Llanen Stone.

TERRITORIALS TO BECOME ANTI-AIRCRAFT BATTALION

Three Pinesbury Rifles, 11th London Regiment, in camp at Wemlock, Sussex, are to become an anti-aircraft battalion. Some of the men are seen receiving instructions in the use of anti-aircraft guns, two of which, with instructors, have been brought from Gosport.

RECONSTRUCTION PARTY NOMINEE

Lieut. Col. Charles H. Ackerman of Peterboro, nominated by the Movers Club to contest Peterboro West in the federal election.

A. J. BROOKS

Conservative nominee for Royal (Kings and Queens) in the forthcoming Dominion election. Mr. Brooks, who is a former member of the New Brunswick Legislature, lives in Sussex.

PHILLIES' PILOT

Here is a close-up of Jimmy Wilson, clever manager of the Philadelphia Nationals. Jimmy is very popular with the Philadelphia fans and graduated from the local sand-clot. As a catcher Jimmy has few equals in the game.

TROPICAL VALLEY A MYTH

Dr. Charles Cammell, Dominion Deputy Minister of Mines, after a 4,000-mile airplane flight from Prince Rupert northward and ending at Edmonton, exploded the myth of a tropical valley in the Laird River country in northern British Columbia, where palms were said to flourish and dinosaurs to roam. He found seven-foot timothy growing at the supposed site of the valley, and luxuriant vegetation due to irrigation from hot springs, but no tropical paradise.

FIERY MANAGER

This happy picture of Rogers Hornsby, manager of the St. Louis Browns, belies the fact that he can get tough in the pinches. He has always been famous for his outspoken ways, but the players like him and work together under his management.

THE DUKE OF YORK HOLIDAYS AT BOYS' CAMP

His Royal Highness the Duke of York is seen amongst the boys at the Duke of York's Camp at Southwold, Suffolk. The boys come from all over the country, from industries and public schools, and the Duke camps with them for several days.

ITALY POURING MEN INTO AFRICAN TROUBLE AREA

These youthful soldiers look cheerful enough as they wave goodbye to their friends at an Italian seaport on their way to face the possibility of war close to the Equator.

MILLIONS FOR OHIO

Governor Martin L. Davey of Ohio leaving the White House after securing President Roosevelt's promise of $15,000,000 to $20,000,000 in public works funds for Ohio construction work.

Petroleum Production

Production of petroleum in the province during July totalled 102,135 barrels, which brings the total production of the various fields for the first seven months of the year up to 729,805 barrels, compared with 701,218 barrels for the same period of 1934. The bulk of the production is of Turner Valley naphtha.

E. L. Gray Resigns

E. L. Gray, deputy minister of municipal affairs for the Alberta government, has resigned to accept the position of manager of the new Eastern Irrigation District, formerly operated by the C. P. R., east of Calgary, with headquarters at Brooks. Mr. Gray has been an official of the Alberta government for some years, being originally with the Department of Agriculture.

Marking the Rivers

For the better information of motor tourists through Alberta, the provincial Public Works Department is proceeding with the work of marking the names of rivers on bridges where main highways cross. A large number of signs have been prepared, some of which have already been put in place.

DUTCH ROYALTY IN SCOTLAND

Queen Wilhelmina of Holland and her daughter, Princess Juliana, taking a stroll while holidaying at "Neth House," St. Fillans, on the banks of picturesque Loch Earn.

RUSSO-CZECH CULTURAL AGREEMENT

M. Stalin: "I give you what I haven't got—and you give it back to me again."—Die Brennessel, Munich.

Gleanings of Interest To the Women Folks

By THE GLEANER

Mrs. L. J. O'Brien left on Tuesday's train for a trip to the coast.

Mrs. Nettie Stephens of Dinsdale is visiting Mrs. Jack Stiles.

The W. M. S. met at Mrs. Brough-ton's home on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. J. B. Yule entertained a few friends to afternoon tea on Friday last.

Mrs. Mary Bayhan was hostess to a few friends at her home on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Muriel Welcker of Sexsmith spent a few days this week with the Bayhans.

Mrs. Sally Minchin left for Vancouver on Friday's train, with the intention of taking a nursing course.

Willy Bayhan is still visiting at Fairview, and his parents are not expecting him until they see him.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Stiles visited the Barrys at Berwyn on Saturday evening, staying overnight.

The W. A. held their first meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. Harley on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bayhan and Pat Donahue's sister, Clara, were guests at the Sunday dinner at Pat Donahue's home.

Mrs. Wilson of the Municipal Hospital staff spent this week as the guest of the Barrys at Berwyn.

The Bayhans were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Welcker to afternoon tea on Monday.

Mrs. Mary Archibald of Fairview spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald.

Mrs. Vera Guthrie of Fairview visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Guthrie, over the Labor Day holiday.

The C. W. L. Grande Prairie sub-division will meet at the home of Mrs. F. Spicer on the evening of Wednesday next.

Mrs. Hogarty of Calgary is expected to arrive on today's train to join her husband, the new U.G.G. buyer here.

Mrs. Chester Miller and daughters, who have been visiting the formers' mother at Fairview for the past two weeks, returned on Monday.

Mrs. Gertrude Brown of Beaver spent the week in Grande Prairie as the guest of Mrs. Gordon Thompson and Mrs. Chard.

Mrs. N. McCredy of Edmonton, who was the guest of Mrs. R. B. Harris of Grande Prairie for two weeks, left for home on Tuesday night's train.

Mrs. Roy Fitzpatrick, who has been spending her vacation with her husband in Edmonton is expected back on this Friday's train to resume her duties at the Academy.

L. A. MEETING SEPT. 11
The Ladies' Aid of St. Paul's United Church will meet at the home of Mrs. A. R. McMillan on Wednesday, September 11, at 3 p.m.

The W. I. met at the home of Mrs. Hillman on Thursday night, when Miss Betty McNaught of Beaver Lodge gave a very interesting demonstration.

Mrs. Barrett and her daughter, Miss Marion Barrett, of Lito Grande, also Mrs. Shepherd and Miss Monks, of Glen of Beaver Lodge spent Monday and Tuesday in Grande Prairie.

Mrs. Sheila Vancouver left on Friday's train for Vancouver, where she intends to spend the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Kerry while taking her grade twelve and string and music lessons.

Mrs. J. A. See and small son, Grant of Edmonton, arrived in Grande Prairie this week to join Mr. See, who was announced in last week's Tribune as having received an appointment with Oliver Linton and have made their home at the residence formerly occupied by Mrs. K. Lydell.

Mrs. J. Jaeger entertained twelve men and women guests to a evening of fun at various card games and "the lunch was grand"—at a shower given in honor of Miss "Toots" Watson on Saturday evening. The bride-elect was presented with crystal cocktail glasses, berry bowl and refreshments to match the sets given her by the various clubs to which she belongs.

W. A. TEA AND SALE OF HOME COOKING, SEPT. 21
The Anglican W. A. will hold a tea and sale of home cooking on Saturday afternoon, September 21, in the Spick Hall.

PREPARING FOR FLOWER SERVICE
The W. M. S. and Ladies' Aid are decorating the Unitarian church for the Flower Service to be held there on Sunday. If anyone has any flowers to donate kindly leave them in the basement of the church before 3 p.m. on Saturday.

CELEBRATED FIFTH BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY
There was great excitement at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harrison on Tuesday afternoon. The reason for all the excitement was due to the fact that their son, Robert, with the assistance of some down hill friends, was celebrating his fifth birthday anniversary.

One of the highlights of the occasion came when the little fellow sat down to a sumptuous repast prepared and served by Mrs. Harrison.

One may be quiet and yet sing a song of praise in one's heart, a song of praise involving stillness and silence and restfulness.

And when trouble and storm would make life as it were hell, still and silent, trust and wait patiently, for—

"With silence only as their benediction,
God's angels come,
Where, in the shadow of a great affliction,
The soul sits dumb."

"Be still, and know that I am God."

"Keep quiet when the storm and stress
Of grief assail your soul,
When fear, revolt, and bitterness
Would break your calm control,
And you the God shall learn to know,
Whose chastening made you whole."

PRESIDENT OF REBEKAHS VISITS GRANDE PRAIRIE

Mrs. M. Pettit of Alta, Alberta, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Alberta, paid the Grande Prairie Lodge an official visit on Tuesday night. She also visited the spirit River Lodge, who combined business with pleasure and visited with friends in the town of Peace River.

Mrs. Pettit, who left for home on Tuesday's train, had the following to say to the Tribune reporter with regard to her trip to the Peace River:

"This is my first trip into this country and I have been simply delighted with everything I have seen. I regret that I could not have seen more of the country."

WEDDING OF A POPULAR

Mrs. "Toots" Watson, making a charming picture in her beautiful white satin gown at her wedding, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

One may be quiet and yet sing a song of praise in one's heart, a song of praise involving stillness and silence and restfulness.

And when trouble and storm would make life as it were hell, still and silent, trust and wait patiently, for—

"With silence only as their benediction,
God's angels come,
Where, in the shadow of a great affliction,
The soul sits dumb."

"Be still, and know that I am God."

"Keep quiet when the storm and stress
Of grief assail your soul,
When fear, revolt, and bitterness
Would break your calm control,
And you the God shall learn to know,
Whose chastening made you whole."

PRESIDENT OF REBEKAHS VISITS GRANDE PRAIRIE

Mrs. M. Pettit of Alta, Alberta, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Alberta, paid the Grande Prairie Lodge an official visit on Tuesday night. She also visited the spirit River Lodge, who combined business with pleasure and visited with friends in the town of Peace River.

Mrs. Pettit, who left for home on Tuesday's train, had the following to say to the Tribune reporter with regard to her trip to the Peace River:

"This is my first trip into this country and I have been simply delighted with everything I have seen. I regret that I could not have seen more of the country."

WEDDING OF A POPULAR

Mrs. "Toots" Watson, making a charming picture in her beautiful white satin gown at her wedding, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

The newly-weds then left by car for the "outside."

Little Miss Peggy Bean, in daffodil organdie, was a dainty flower girl, while her mother, Mr. Brough-ton, a lovely gown of blue-green crepe georgette, with green picture hat and silver shoes, was matron of honor.

Mr. Brough-ton acted as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

SCHOOL TEACHERS RETURN

The great majority of the passengers on Friday's train were school teachers en route to their various schools. Many in the group were making their first trip to the Peace River.

At the Churches

REMEMBER THE SABBATH DAY TO KEEP IT HOLY

ST. LUKE'S (ANGLICAN)

REV. HENRY W. SIMPSON, R.A., L.T., Rector

Sunday, September 8

11:00 a.m.—PRAYER LODGE, 3:00 p.m.—RIO GRANDE, 5:30 p.m.—HINCHON TRAIL.

Mr. J. Wheeler will conduct these services.

CLAIRMONT UNITED CHURCH

Minister: STANLEY R. HUNT, B.A., B.D.

Sunday, September 8

10:00 a.m.—PRAYER LODGE, 11:00 a.m.—Sunday School, 3:15 p.m.—Reception Hall, John and Mrs. J. Wheeler will conduct these services.

ST. PAUL'S UNITED CHURCH

Director of Music: H. L. VAUGHAN, A.E.C.M.

Sunday, September 8

ORR
Phone 43

'S Har
WE SELL FOR LESS

Hardware

WE DELIVER

1934-35 WITH $2,081,760 DE
EDMONTON, Sept. 3. — Al
U. F. A. government wound
1934-35 fiscal year, which
March 31 last, with a deficit o
$2,081,760, including the provinc
phone loss of $443,700, accord
the public accounts, released had received a generous consideration from the last provincial government and hoped to be favored likewise by the new one. The Premier had been all-considering in their problems. Even if some thought that not much had been accomplished in a general way, the organization was flexible in its operation so that as citizens

DRUG

ALL MAIL ORDERS
Phone 28 GR

STORE
PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO INDE PRAIRIE, Alta.

DRUG STORE
ALL MAIL ORDERS PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO
Phone 28 GRANDE PRAIRIE, Alta.

DRUG STORE
ALL MAIL ORDERS PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO
Phone 28 GRANDE PRAIRIE, Alta.

We carry a complete line of
 TEXT BOOKS AT STANDARD GOVERNMENT PRICES
 Come early for some of our SCHOOL OPENING WEEK SPECIALS in Scribbles, Exercise
 Books, Loose-Leaf Books

Butchart's

DRUG STORE

ALL MAIL ORDERS PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO
 Phone 28 GRANDE PRAIRIE, Alta.